1. You must be living in inadequate or substandard condition, over-crowded conditions and unable to obtain a loan through conventional financing.
2. You must be willing to Partner with Habitat. This means that the family must put in 300 hours of Sweat Equity working to help build their home along with other Habitat volunteers.
3. Partner families must be willing and able to make regular monthly mortgage payments on the home, and make a $700 down payment. Mortgage payments normally run about $350-400 per month (depending on the size of the house) for a period of 20 years. Habitat for Humanity is a Christian housing ministry. No interest is charged on the mortgage. The house cost is based on the materials that are used to build the home.
4. Must have lived in Hood County at least one year.

Application Sessions include assistance in filling out the application and information about Habitat for Humanity.
